Article published on June 20th 2012 | Recreation

Planning a vacation in the marvellous Malta, there is accommodation in Gozo. Choose from a selection of hotels, villas, guesthouses and inns. Elegant rooms including suites are available to accommodate families.

Gozo is a small island consisting of numerous dive sites and cultural attractions. The sites and attractions are near different types of accommodation. The Kempinski San Lawrenz Resort & Spa is great for couples.

Other five and four star hotels include the Taâ€™Cenc and St. Patrick Hotels. The hotels feature fabulous amenities and facilities, such as spas. There are magnificent views of the Mediterranean Sea and landscaping.

Large groups of five or more should consider the Villas and farmhouses. The Villa Maria Antonia, Casa Patricia, and Camomilla are a few villas. Parents with small children the farmhouses are spacious and entertaining.

Individuals looking for adventure consider diving in Gozo dive sites. The sites are in the middle of the Mediterranean on three islands. Explore the harbours, bays, cliffs and shipwrecks during a dive in various sites.

People who love scuba diving as a sport, visit the Blue Hole and the Chimney. The maximum depth for experienced divers to shore dive is fifty metres. Fungus Rock and Reqqa Point are other major dive sites in island.

Divers may photograph underwater, view large caves and wrecks. There are options to dive in the day or night, which is a beautiful experience. It will be an experience to remember filled with excitement and fun.

Visitors needing certification and additional training, there are instructors. The schools are located throughout Malta and various destinations. Thousands of divers visit for certification from an accredited school.

There are over forty dive centres specifically for diving in Malta. Each centre has a variety of sites that offer courses and dive sessions to experience. Plan your next vacation in a country filled with natural beauty.

The dive sites on the Maltese islands are safe for all divers and visitors. All sites employ professional, certified and trained diving instructors. Children the ages of 10 & up and adults can experience scuba diving.

It is a country filled with cultural attractions and accommodations. Tourists and divers can choose a hotel near restaurants and beaches. There are plenty of entertainment and activities for the entire family.

The guesthouses and farmhouses are spacious for groups of 5 or more people. The houses can accommodate twenty or more individuals. It is wonderful for diving teams, large and small size families.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/recreation-articles/accommodation-in-gozo-diving-in-gozo-diving-in-malta.htm - Article Side

Atlantis Diving Centre - About Author:
Atlantis Gozo is a Diving Centre on the Maltese Islands offering qualified courses to learn to scuba dive and emergency techniques. Divers and tourists from over the world may plan a vacation in the Malta. To learn more about deep, shallow, boat and offshore dives; visit online today at a http://www.atlantisgozo.com.

Article Keywords:
accommodation Gozo, diving Gozo, diving Malta

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!