Approaching Women Directly - How to Tackle the Positive Reaction by Sinns of Attraction

Article published on December 21st 2011 | Relationship

When you are approaching women with the direct approach, simply a certain percentage will probably be into it. Some will give you the neutral response and some will just keep walking. After you first start out with the direct approach, I'd say you are going to average a 10% achievement rate or so. When you get that first woman who stops and is into you, you are going to be the one freaking out and going, "What do I do next?" And so, here's what you do using a positive reaction.

It's On!

The usual positive response to a direct approach goes something this way: She's smiling and saying, "Oh my god, I'm so happy! Guys in no way approach me like that! That's the coolest thing I've ever transpired to me!" She's pleased and she's gushing.

You are going to move right in and say, "Oh my god, what's your name? I need to become familiar with you too. I've wanted to meet someone interesting." Your response is positive and you are just surprised as she would be to meet someone cool.

Subsequent Step - Qualification

You'll want to move straight into qualification. At this point when she's excited is a good time to obtain her talking about herself. Use medium hoops and get her to speak about herself; what she likes, what she's passionate about, what's her thing, etc.

The emotional momentum is at its highest in those first 30 seconds right after the approach. Utilize this chance to strike while the iron is hot and get plenty of qualification going. You don't ought to jump into building attraction just yet, but play it by ear. Usually, I work on qualification and rapport during this period.

The Number Close

Direct approaches perform best for daytime pick-ups. When you pick up women during the daytime, you're not going to be taking her home or anything like that. Instead, you'll want to be working toward the number close. Leave her in that excited state and get her number. She's going to be talking to all of her friends relating to this crazy thing that occurred nowadays. You desire to leave her in that state.

Approaching women directly has a bit of practice. You get shot down a lot and it has a pretty low success rate. Yet when you hit, make certain you know precisely what to do so that you can close with her number.
