

Article published on August 16th 2012 | Shoes

Wedding day certainly is the most important day in the girl's life. This is the day she is most meticulous about and wants everything immaculate. However, this pursuit of perfection brings a lot of challenges also. One such challenge is finding perfect footwear for a wedding day. A fabulous looking pair of shoes is ought to stun a woman and when the shoe is for marriage, it has to be something outstanding. This article will highlight the importance of shoes on the big day along with some advices about what should be considered while buying a shoe for that day.

One mistake that most brides made is that they left the shoe shopping for the last days. Markets are swamped with different kind of shoes and a bride is likely to get confounded; therefore the bride must take time to decide what kind of footwear she wants. Also, early shoe shopping will give an advantage if some changes are to be made.

Shall I go for comfort or style?

This is the most important question while buying a bridal shoe. Many brides sacrifice comfort over fashion and ended up with a whimper. Always remember, a shoe can never make a style statement until it is comfortable. All its spark, style and grace will go in vain because the bride will never be able to pull it off with confidence and will look like teetering on the shoes.

Shall I wear high heels or not?

Now this is the million dollar question. Here I will highlight a few things that a bride must ponder upon.

- 1) Experiment on an ostentatious day of marriage, where all eyes will be on the bride, will definitely be inane. If you are not used to of wearing long heels, no need to get them for the wedding day.
- 2) Keep in mind the groom's height while buying a shoe. The bride looks taller than groom will certainly make the couple look awkward and vice versa. This awkwardness will come through the wedding picture album also.
- 3) It would be highly suggested that the bride must break into her wedding shoes beforehand. Some shoe just takes time to loosen up and become comfortable. Therefore, try to walk and climb the stairs to get accustom of wedding footwear.
- 4) Avoid heels straightaway if you are planning a beach wedding as walking on the sand wearing big heels will not be comfortable. Get flat shoes for beach wedding and if you think that shoes with heels are indispensable, then go for a nice wedge shoe.

Categories of heels:

- 1) The first category is platform heel which is usually 4 inches +. One has to be quite gutsy to pick this one up. But if a bride can pull it off; it will certainly enhance her grace.
- 2) Second is stiletto heel. This heel is mostly between three to four inches. It does elongate the legs and make you look taller.
- 3) The third category is stiletto heel between 2 to 2.25 inches. Any girl, unless not paranoid of heels, can pull it off with a little bit of practice and confidence.

To be precise, give utmost importance to shoe shopping and make sure you get the one blend of comfort and style. A stunning pair of shoes will definitely manifold the grace of your overall ensemble.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/shoes-articles/wedding-shoes-tips-to-get-the-perfect-one.htm> - Article Side

Abdul Bari - About Author:

Shall I go for comfort or style? This is the most important question while buying a a bridal shoe.

Get flat shoes for beach wedding and if you think that shoes with heels are indispensable, then go for a nice a wedge shoe.

Article Keywords:

bridal shoes, wedge shoes,

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!