Whether you are celebrating your anniversary, throwing an engagement party for your daughter, or celebrating a milestone in a loved oneâ€™s life, youâ€™ll want to host an event that will not only awe your guests, youâ€™ll want to host an event that is unforgettable.

Besides the food, lighting, and number of guests, youâ€™ll want to focus on your decoration. Not only do you need your decoration to comfort your guests, you need your decoration to welcome them into the event.

At most gatherings, if guests feel safe and comfortable, they will be happy to stay until the end of the event and enjoy themselves. It is important to give your guests that feeling, and although it sounds like it may be a task, itâ€™s not that hard.

To comfort your guests, all you have to do is invest in little decoration details that will soothe them. A great way to silently appease your guests is by added some beautiful sashes to your chairs. Not only with the sashes add to the delightful decor, they will create a very elegant and ethereal ambience to your event.

Now, depending on the event you are throwing, you have a variety of different colours sashes and different textured sashes to choose from. The one thing youâ€™ll want to make sure of when choosing your sashes is whether or not they will add their own vibe to the event and whether or not they will be cohesive with all the other decor. To do this you need to know what type of event youâ€™re hosting and what you want people to feel while there.

Graduation Party

If hosting a graduation party for your son or daughter, you may want to look into using some Organza Sashes for your chairs. Not only are the Organza Sashes light and crisp, they come in an array of different colours and styles. Organza is a sheer light material which will translate your more casual theme of a graduation party whilst not making the function hall too heavy. A graduation is a festive and happy occasion and your decor should match the mood.

The great thing about the Organza Sashes is that they can match with some Organza Table Overlays, giving your event a nice cohesive feel.

Anniversary Party

If youâ€™re throwing an anniversary party, you want it to be bright and bold; therefore, youâ€™ll want to invest in some Satin Sashes. Satin Sashes will convey the right statement when hosting a party to celebrate your years as a married couple. You will want to be vivacious and loud, and Satin Sashes will get that message across by creating a happy and healthy mood.

Engagement Party

When throwing an engagement party, youâ€™ll want to invest in some more luxurious sashes such as Taffeta Sashes and Pin Tuck Sashes. For a more elegant and unique feel, these sashes will do the trick. With the Pin Tuck Sashes elegant Hand-stitched lines, and the Taffeta Sashesâ€™ bold sheen, your engagement party will be a hit.
