Customized clothing, when tailored by one of the best bespoke tailors, will always give you the smartest fit. There are many reasons why one must go to the right tailor every time whether one wants shirts tailored or slacks and suits or tuxedos, jackets, topcoats or vests. These are very experienced tailors and some of them have been trained abroad for forty years and more in their family tailoring shop for men.

When these tailors take your measurements for your custom clothing, the measurements will include the width of the thigh and the wrist size. The lengths and height, the weight and stance, shoulder shape and the curvature of the arm are all noted with care. The right kind of custom tailor will note each detail in which your body is unique, as every personâ€™s body is unique as well. These minute and subtle factors will define the way your suit drapes and fits and whether or not it moves in harmony with your body.

The next important part of custom clothing is that the custom tailor must have suitable stock online for you to select from. The best tailor will have a variety of fabrics in different colors and shades and textures or brands for customized clothing. Shirt fabrics therefore may be in blends and single-ply cotton or two-ply superfine and wrinkle free 100% cotton. You will have the choice of Acorn Collection, Somelos, Teseo and Monti or Albini. When you place an order for shirts you have the options for 15 different collar styles, four pocket styles and 5 cuff styles to choose from.

Custom clothing is all about being conservative and traditional or contemporary and current or in with the times. Therefore, when you want suit jackets, the best tailors of customized clothing will offer you the choice from among Classic two buttons and three buttons, one button with peak lapel and the Conservative 2 buttons with notch lapel among several others. Your tuxedo can be with notch lapel with lower flap pockets or with the shawl collar, double breasted, Classic cutaway or the full dress tuxedo. The slacks could have plain front, single pleat, double pleats or triple pleats, four pleats, box pleats or scissor pleats. Finally, the custom tailor is one that will give you individuality with style and quality with perfect fit each time.
