As we know wristwatch is a tool used for keeping time, but it is given more meanings by people from the beginning to end. It even means some symbols at the special occasion. For example, a person wears watch in social occasion means that he has strict time concept and rigorous style, otherwise, he should ask someone else for time which was looked down upon by others. It indicates that he is lack of strict time concept. So watch becomes a reflection of professional qualities.

On formal social occasions, watches equal to jewelries. It is said that, â€œWatches are not only the jewelries of men, but also the most important ornaments of men.â€• On the social occasions the watches people wore often present their position, their identities and the state of their wealth. So during interpersonal communication, the watches people wear, especially the ones men wear, always catch othersï¼‡eyes.

As to how to choose a suitable watch, there are many elements that we should make decisions on, such as its categories, shapes, colors, designs, and functions. It is dainty when a man chooses a watch. He should take these elements, including his status, taste, price and workmanship of the watch, the occasions this watch suits, into account. So it is normal for a man to own several watches. That wearing different watches on different occasions to represent the different side of a person is pursued by men.
