Ribbons are beautiful accessories that come handy while decorating a greeting card or something. It adds an elegant look to the greeting card and is bound to impress the receiver. Truly speaking, decorating greeting cards and gift boxes with a ribbon has now become a trend among most people. Whenever a special occasion like birthday or New Year arrives, gifts and greeting cards are sold like hot cakes. Then attaching or tying a ribbon becomes an absolute necessity to add glow to the special gift. Thatâ€™s the taste of most people these days and this taste is worth appreciating after all.

Back home, there are varieties of ribbons available in the market. Among those ribbons, the smooth, silky and velvety colorful ribbons are the most liked. The Satin Ribbon belongs to such category. A satin ribbon is generally made of silk. These ribbons are quite eye-catching and are most suitable for the above mentioned occasions. They have a smooth and silky touch that is very pleasing to the senses. Satin ribbons are also suitable for scrapbook decorations and their glossy look causes them to be an instant favorite for wrapping gifts.

You will also come across handmade ribbons in the market but they are a bit costly compared to satin ribbons. Despite their cost, handmade ribbons have the advantage that any material can be used to make them. The looks and designs of the handmade ribbons are customizable. That means you are free to make any sort of design and printing along with your favorite color. Satin ribbons are no doubt trendy, but if you are a thrifty kind of person then you can even make the ribbons yourself with your hands and save your money.
