Article Side

Table Overlays to Spruce up Your Event by Chaircoverdepot

Article published on January 31st 2012 | Shopping

As you may, or may not know, tables at an event are multifunctional and also one of the most important selling points when it comes to hosting a memorable event. Not only must you keep a multitude of tables, for their functionality, you must decorate your tables so that your guests feel comfortable in their surroundings and remember your event for years to come.

When throwing a memorable event, you need to know that the little details are what counts. So when it comes to sprucing up your tables, look into some beautiful table overlays to add that extra bit of personality to your event.

The table overlays available at Chair Cover Depot are not only elegant, they each hold a certain character and are able to charm any event.

The overlays offered here are perfect for all occasions, so versatile that they call can be used for wedding receptions or small informal dinner with friends. It all depends on what type of overlay you want and need.

Stylish for Any Occasion

The sheer fabric of an Organza Overlay allows you to pair it to any table cloth and decor. Offered here are Turquoise, Gold and Plum Organza Overlays which are done up with beautiful embroidery. Surrounded by a satin border, these organza overlays give life to any function.

The Turquoise Organza Overlay can be used for more informal events such as dinner with friends or a small gathering at a function hall or at your home. It is light and can be used with any type of decor, as it gives any table a beautiful and soft feel.

The Gold and Plum Organza Overlays can be used for more formal events as they are bolder and brighter colours. Each overlay brings with it versatility as they can be used for formal dinners, engagements, or any business events.

The Red Organza Overlay is beautifully embroidered and has stunning sequin work accenting the cloth. Bordered by satin, this overlay is grand in its colour and texture. This overlay will definitely stand out and speak volumes when used for a wedding or engagement reception.

Glam up Your Function

If you want a little more glitter and glam at your function, you may want to check out the Silver Netted Overlay. Not only is this overlay vivacious and elegant, it is bound to add that extra bit of sparkle to any event. It can stand alone or be dressed up, either way; it will wow your guests.

While being a very sophisticated addition to any table, the Silver Netted Overlay can stand alone or be dressed up with matching decor, such as the silver satin table runners and gorgeous diamante buckles as napkin holders. With a beautifully embroidered design, and satin border, this table cloth looks great on any table cloth, whether it be white, black, or blue. The grey netting compliments any colour and decor it is paired with.

More so for formal functions, the Silver Netted Overlay would be great for grand dinner parties, themed functions, and birthdays.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/shopping-articles/table-overlays-to-spruce-up-your-event.htm - Article Side

Chaircoverdepot - About Author:
Chair Cover Depot offers table overlays for all occasions. a Hire table linen or table overlays from chair cover depot and add extra bit of personality to your event.

Article Keywords:
table linen, table linens for sale, hire table linen

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!