Suit is a special dress up for every special moment and so is a tuxedos. It is a dinner suit used at formal dinner gatherings. Though the suit is a semi formal wear, it is only worn during any evening occasion. It is one of the most striking and eye catchy suits and is worn often with lavish styling. With a royal touch this suit is now becoming a worthy conception for many other occasions as well. This suit is a very respectable form of dressing with sense on cruises, wedding, and formal parties. To wear such a suit one should know the complete list of handling it as well and putting it the right way. Therefore the below description can help one along with it.

* Style- the style of the suit should be mostly double breasted. Usage of double breasted suit makes it look smart and crisp to carry. The etiquette of wearing this suit is indifferent to others. As far as buttons are considered, it should have a single button which makes it perfect slim fit to be worn. Moreover, a vest is important part of wearing the suit, but in double breasted suits it should be avoided.

* Must to do- the color chosen for the suit should be dark, blue or black colors are the best. Moreover, one should stick to wearing the suit in a proper manner with French cuffed shirts, bow or ties, nice polished watch shoes and a watch. The best color for the French cuffed shirt is white, charcoal grey, or black. As far as white coats are considered, use them at highly special occasion. Trousers should be formal and should have a silk or satin trim down to the leg.

* Important- it is important to fasten the button of the suit especially in a double breasted jacket. As the occasion for tuxedos is always important, keep in mind to polish the shoes, prefer leather shoes well maintained and polished. The next important thing is socks matched up with the shirt and should be lengthy enough at least till the knees so that even if it is visible, the posture is decent enough. Another thing is to keep proper fitting of the suit, pay attention when it is tailored. Correct size of every fitting is comfortable as well as smart to carry.

* Buying- this suit is a must in a man's wardrobe as it is meant for special occasions. Buying such suit is a onetime affair and is worth. Renting a suit may spoil your look with a shabby appearance. So plan of getting a new suit for you for the best looks. It may be quite expensive but this suit obviously makes the day of anyone who wears it as it makes you worth noticing. Wear the suit in such manner that you can carry it well, check your postures while sitting and standing in front of mirror, it will make you confident enough to make great moves with tuxedos.
