Accidents resulting in personal injury comprise defamation of your character, medical malpractice, dog bites and of course car accidents which are very common. If you happen to be in such a situation in Orange County, you have the right to claim damages from the individual or the business that caused the accident. Without a reputed and competent accident lawyer Orange County, the possibility of getting a realistic compensation is not viable.

What to do after an Auto Accident

In the United States, there are over 6 million automobile accidents occurring every year leading to death or injuries. At an unfortunate time if you get involved in some accident, itâ€™s important to know what to do to defend yourself and your family.

Before contacting your accident lawyer Orange County, you should call 911 and insist that a report be filed with the police or highway patrol. The police officer will note the details of the people involved such as their names, telephone numbers and address, the license number of the driver and the vehicles involved. The details of the witnesses are also valuable.

You should remember to give the name and policy number of your insurance company.

Do not sign anywhere without consulting your auto accident attorney Orange County.

It is important to take photographs of the accident spot and the vehicles including any injuries on your body.

Seek medical help and describe the events to your doctor including all symptoms.

The police officerâ€™s report is of utmost importance as he gives an unbiased statement and this is valued by the insurance company. Your auto accident attorney Orange County will also make a note of it, which is required for filing the case.

Select a Reputed Representative

Choosing the right accident lawyer Orange County is significant for your future. A good attorney will apprise you of your rights as well as your obligations within the State law. Some law firms offer an evaluation of the case at no cost. Some others will charge you only if you win your case.

It is your auto accident attorney Orange County who will be filing your claim. Hence his testimonials have to be checked, directories will give you information of qualified attorneys. You can also check with friends and relatives.

How will your Attorney proceed with your Claim?

Once you have hired your auto accident attorney Orange County, be prepared to answer all the queries that he poses to you. If the accident has resulted in injuries, your attorney may hire a doctor to examine you. If your lawyer can produce sufficient evidence, you have all the chances of being compensated. If the other vehicle had an engine fault, the manufacturer will be held responsible. In such a case your attorney will do the needful to hire auto mechanics to investigate. Therefore, an expert accident lawyer Orange County is indispensable to help you get your compensation.
