Act I Diablo 3 Quest Guide

Rescue Deckard Cain

Your adventurer's first mission in this quest for Diablo 3 guide is to rescue the good, old Deckard Cain from the dungeon under Old Tristram. He's along with two scholars that have together been trapped in the dungeon by an onslaught of demons and are fortified, waiting for rescue. Cain will then serve as a guide to the lore behind the forces of Hell through the game and will identify your unidentified items for free. Diablo 3 quests seem to follow the same path of Diablo II quests, but of course with a lot more new content and more immersive gameplayâ€¦

The Fallen Star

In this quest, you have to kill 10 Zombies in under 20 seconds in order to unlock â€œGate Crasher." Not too difficult, just try to button spam and get it out of the way fast. The easiest way is probably to use the Demon Hunter class (lucky you if that's your main character.) Read the rest of our â€œThe Fallen Star" Diablo 3 quest guide

Legacy of Cain

To start off this Legacy of Cain quest guide, I may have some bad news. You have to fight to (mini) bosses during the Legacy of Cain quest - Captain Daltyn and Headcleaver. Captain Daltyn is pretty easy to deal with, not a problem. He has high HP (104) but thankfully he is pretty weak. Get rid of the little mobs first, as they are easy to kill and a nuisance.

Reign of Black King

To start off this quest, I would suggest selling the items in your inventory that you do not need. The place you are looking for is the Cathedral Garde, which you can access from New Tristram Waypoint. There will be some worthwhile loot to get in this Reign of Black King quest guide. Trailing the Coven

For this Trailing the Coven quest guide, you must explore Leoric's Manor. At the entrance, there will me many Dark Cultists and Dark Berserkers. There willa also probably be a Dark Cultist Boss in the Trailing the Coven quest, so kill them. You will find a green item there (Orders from Maghda, which talks about the daughter of Adria, Leaghâ€¦

Act II Diablo 3 Quest Guide

Alcarnus

You must first find the road to Alcarnus, which is accessible from The Canyon Rim Mines. Then, you have to free the town from the punishment of the dark cultists that have taken over. Release the captured townspeople that remain in the cage-prisons from the cultists.

The Lost Girl

Here, you must avenge the death of a girl who has just exploded in front of you. This may seem a bit weird, but just do it - as simple as Diablo 3 quest guides get.

Blood Money

Locate the Enclave of Khamsin within The Stinging Winds and unravel the mystery of its lost daughters. A man named Zakarwa is implicated in the death of the town's daughters at the hands of some cultists. The enclave is a mini-town found within the area called The Stinging Winds.

Act II Diablo 3 Side Quest Guide

The Restless Sands

Free the Necromancer Mehtan from the ghosts of his past. Find him south of the Enclave of Khamsin in the area known as The Stinging Winds. Summon the spirits haunting him by finding and activating his three totems, and then destroy the wraiths that appear. He gives you a rare ring as a reward.

Alesser's Pendant

Alesser has asked you to locate and kill the monstrous sand shark that killed his son. He gives you a rare belt as a reward. Find the shark in The Stinging Winds.
