The Nokia C2-02 is a touch screen phone with a slider. If you want to get a good deal for this set, check out a repute classified ads portal. They have good offers for not only a brand new mobile, but also for used Nokia mobile. A lot of factors affect the price of a used mobile and one needs to be very particular about being aware of all these when looking to make a purchase in the second hand market.

Let us take a case in point. Nokia C2-02 price in India is bound to vary from one city to another. The factors associated with it in Mumbai would be much different from that in Delhi. The features of this model vary and you should find out what is being offered before making the purchase. Nokia C2-02 being a dual SIM phone, with some very appealing features, purchasing it in the used mobile market would not guarantee that all the features are the same as brand new. You will need to contact the advertiser for that particular set put up for sale and enquire about each and every feature.

For getting a good bargain, you need to be aware of all the features of the phone you intend to purchase. It keeps you in a good position when discussing with the seller about how you are justified in demanding a lower price for the product. What can help you even more in this is the knowledge of related or similar handsets. With all this in mind, you can get in touch with the advertiser. Perhaps some information on the buying or selling preferences of people in various cities, such as Delhi and Mumbai, can also help.

Nokia C2-02 price in Delhi is bound to vary from that of Mumbai, Chennai or any other city, whether you want to purchase the product brand new or in the used mobile market. The brand new Nokia C2-02 comes for around Rs. 4,000. Even for brand new set, some advertisers can be seen to be charging a bit more. You can bargain with such people or choose to buy from the lower priced advertiser. Used Nokia mobiles are among the most traded cell phones in the second hand or the after sales market. This is because Nokia is a very popular brand and it is known for producing phones that are rough and tough. So, it is actually advisable that you prefer Nokia when looking to get a reliable second hand cell mobile.
