All Inclusive Holidays in Florida by Liz Fenoa

Article published on April 18th 2012 | Travel

If you're looking for a relaxing, fun holiday at a place that as a lot to offer you, consider looking into an inclusive holiday in Florida. There are tons of resorts and places around the state that offer all inclusive packages, so you can find something that suits your needs and desires no matter where you go. Many of these resorts are located right on the beach, offering you the beauty and fun of a beach holiday with the convenience of a resort to match. Here are some of the best places to take an all-inclusive holiday in Florida:

Trader Winds Resort

Located by St. Pete's Beach, this resort actually has two different locations: Island Grand, or Sandpiper Suites. Both locations are right on the beach, have a variety of activities and restaurants available, and provide beautiful accommodations and amenities. Island Grand is a great place if you're looking for a family friendly location, as you can bring the kids along and you won't have to worry about them having plenty to do. Sandpiper Suites is usually favoured by couples and older visitors, as it tends to be more quiet and intimate.

Amelia Island Plantation

This gorgeous property is located in eastern Florida, right on the coast of the Atlantic Ocean. The resort provides plenty of activities, including a spa, water sports, golf, and tours. It attracts a wide variety of visitors, from families to honeymooning couples. There is also a delicious seafood restaurant, camps and activities for kids and teens, and a beautiful pool.

Seascape Resort

Seascape Resort prides itself on having plenty of options, offering tons of fun, but still being an affordable family vacation. You'll stay in a condo, which comes with a complete kitchen. However, if you don't feel like cooking your meals there are plenty of options around the resort. They have many activities and recreation programs available for free or at a discounted price, including things like golf, a fine dining cruise, a dolphin sighting cruise, bike rentals, boat rentals, and more.

Little Palm Island Resort and Spa

This truly stunning resort is a great way to escape from it all and become one with nature. It is on an island right off the coast of the Florida Keys, so it will truly make you feel like you are escaping and enjoying a tropical getaway. On the island you can enjoy a pool, beaches, marina, and even a boutique for shopping. There is also a spa and a fitness centre. When you're in the mood for some excellent cuisine, head to the dining room. The menu offers a variety of exotic and gourmet dishes, featuring tropical flavours like coconut, passion fruit, mango, and sweet plantains.
