

Article Side

Beaches and Museums in Estepona by Jordan Thompson

Article published on January 18th 2012 | Travel

Estepona Beaches

Estepona is a popular tourist resort with many beaches and great variety of historical places and museums. This article will give you a brief introduction about the beaches and museums in Estepona.

EL Cristo Beach:

This beach is located near the famous sports port of Estepona and the length of this beach is 1300 meter while the width is 25 meters. This beach has a good cove which has been regenerated now with a sheltered area to give protection against winds.

La Rada Beach:

La Rada beach is located in front of urban area and this beach has been regenerated in the recent years. This beach has many facilities for the visitors including hammock rental service, showers, sport facilities and cleanliness facilities.

The place is known for its beautiful and clean beaches which are majorly situated near Guadalmina. Just relax yourself along these beaches and you will get plenty of food specialties beside them. If you are interested in trying out the regional fish delicacies then this is the right place. Several restaurants are placed alongside the beach which gives you the opportunity to taste the delicacies as you take a dip in the deep blue sea. And not only this there are also lot of options available for the water sports lovers. You will be amazed to see the very many number of water sports options that is available at Marbella. There are also many yachts available on rent basis. These yachts are available at affordable rent and many types of yacht depending upon your budget are also found here. If you are looking for something that is luxurious then you will get that too.

Punta de Plata:

This beach is a big beach with four thousand meters of length. There are many services available on this beach and this beach is among the busy beaches of the town.

Estepona Museums

Archaeological Museum:

This museum contains a great display of stone work which belongs to the Paleolithic times. You will also find there different kinds of ceramics like copper and bronze and many carved stones.

Municipal Museum:

This museum is located in Plaza de Toros and contains a great variety of sculptures with some interesting historical backgrounds. This museum remains open through out the week except on Sundays.

Ethnographic Museum:

This museum is made with an objective of displaying the living habits, traditions, economic backgrounds, sources of income and other social, traditional and cultural aspects related to the residents of Estepona in the recent and previous years.

Bullfighting Museum:

The name of this bullfighting museum is "Antonio Ordóñez" and this museum is devoted to the famous bullfighter Francisco Ordóñez. He was the first man who invested into the business of bullfighting at Estepona's central street. This museum contains many objects which are related to the bulls and there are many photos also displayed in the museum which highlights the major events in the Estepona.

Paleontology Museum:

This museum is located in Plaza de los Misioneros and remains open through out the whole week except Sundays. This museum was opened first time at the end of 2000 and the objective behind the inauguration of this museum was to display the fossils of variety of species belonging to almost four million years before. This is an interesting place for those who are interested about the history of the fossils.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/beaches-and-museums-in-estepona.htm> - Article Side

Jordan Thompson - About Author:

Club Villamar offers hundreds of miles of beautiful beaches, rich cultural history and a ferienwohnungen spanien is by far the most popular holiday destination, just visit a ferienwohnungen costa brava and a ferienhäuser an der Costa Brava

Article Keywords:

ferienhaus spanien, ferienhäuser spanien, ferienwohnung spanien