Compelling Chardham Yatra by Aaran Hussey

Article published on May 2nd 2012 | Travel

The first thing that one gets through Chardham Yatra is peace of mind. When you see it deeply, it is the peace of mind for which the entire universe is looking for. Known as the Dev Bhumi or the abode of God, Chardham is considered to be the place where divine powers coexist with natural beauty. Chardham Yatra takes one to the holy Himalayas, which is considered to be the meditation place for many Sadhus and Sanyasis when they leave the world and go in lookout for God and peace.

Chardham Yatra is considered to be visiting holy Hindu pilgrimage. Badrinath Yatra and Kedarnath yatra are part of the Chardham other than Yamunotri and Gangotri. These are the four places that together make Chardham.

There are various ways through which you can visit Chardham. Some people prefer to walk down and do trekking while others prefer traveling through helicopter. It is the budget of a person that decides which way they will travel. It indeed costs more to travel by helicopter. However, it is much more comfortable and convenient too. One can do Badrinath, Yamunotri, Gangotri and Kedarnath helicopter online booking separately or as a complete package together.

Talking more about the helicopter service, the pilgrims can do Agastya Muni to Kedarnath helicopter online booking easily. It not only saves your time but also enables you to enjoy a lifetime experience. The service of helicopter to the shrine was started by the government of India in order to help pilgrims of all age group to reach Chardham safely and conveniently. Many elderly pilgrims who visit Chardham find this service a blessing as earlier walking down to Chardham was not possible for them at their age.

This place of worship of Lord Shiva, holy river Ganges and Yamuna and Lord Vishnu is situated in Uttranchal area. In order to do Chardham Yatra, you need to start from Jolly Grant Airport, Delhi to Yamunotri. It will take a day to visit Yamunotri and Gangotri and by evening, helicopter will drop the visitor to Kedarnath. Here you need to arrange for your overnight stay. Next morning it would be possible to worship at the shrines of Kedarnath and Badrinath and from here you will be dropped to Dehradun. Finally, you will be dropped back to Delhi Palam Airport from Dehradun, where your Chardham Yatra would end. Remember that you are not allowed to take any heavy luggage with you other than a hand baggage.
