Pasaje de Am rigo was built in 1853 in Alicante, Spain. In the present era it reminds of the Parisian Influence because it has a wonderful structure. The name Pasaje de Am rigo is Spanish and when it s translated in English then it means Passage of Am rigo. The credit of this name goes to a famous Am rigo named as Jose Gabriel. He took a train from the city of Madrid to Alicante. He remained mayor of Alicante and he was a very innovative kind of noble man.

Jose Gabriel was a very rich man having lots of resources. He owned many buildings in Spain and this is one of them. He remained mayor of the city for only 5 months in the year 1875. The man is famous because he has many contributions in various activities. He was a man of taste, courage and style. He lifted the Spanish theatre and he made the old Dominican of Alicante his home. This passage was also created under the ownership of Jose Gabriel and it remained a private passage for many years.

Pasaje de Am rigo is one of the legacies of painters, jewelers, silversmiths and goldsmiths. It is the only one in Alicante and rest of the legacies are at other places in Spain. Jose Gabriel lived for 77 years in the 17th century but he is still remembered well because of his great contributions to many places of Spain. Alicante was the main area of concentration for the wealthy Jose Gabriel because he spent most of his life in this city.

Park Maria Luisa is among the largest parks in Seville and it is located on an area of around less than five hundred thousand meters. This park was built originally for San Telmo s palace during 1929 when this city hosted the famous Exhibition of Latin America. This famous park was built by the popular French artist, Forestier.

The people that like to explore the contributions of Jose Gabriel always head towards Alicante because they find useful information about him in this city. Pasaje de Am rigo is a great source of inspiration not only for such people rather it s a gift to all the visitors coming to the city. There are some other places in the city worth visiting apart from this passage.

The people that come to Alicante always stay because they find it a useful city to have memorable times. They go to Pasaje de Am rigo several times when it s about visiting the city for this purpose. Along with that they visit restaurants of the city, they stay at some of the finest hotels and they taste some great meals during their stay. The city gives them moments which they never forget for the times to come in their lives.
