

Article Side

The Worth Seeing Places in Reading by Steven Ralph

Article published on June 20th 2012 | Travel

Reading is the cultural town of Berkshire County. It is a town with a fantastic history that date backs to ancient times. The town has a population of approximately 150,000 people and is ideally located at the meeting place of River Kennet and River Thames in the Thames Valley. Reading is located at an approximate travel distance of 64 km from the west of London. The town of Reading is a part of the ceremonial county of Berkshire which is also called a royal county because of the presence of royal residence of Windsor Castle. In the town of Reading, there are great historical places and buildings of international as well as national importance. The town depicts great culture and traditions and consists of a diverse culture. People belonging to several different religions, races and casts from around the world live in the town therefore itâ€™s a mixture of different cultures and traditions. The taxi hire from Reading to Stansted airport and all other major airports of UK is easily accessible 24/7, making it easy for the tourists and travelers heading for airports.

Aside from the location and culture of the town of Reading, the town houses two of the UKâ€™s significant and large universities. The University of Reading and the Thames Valley University are situated in the town of Reading. These two universities are known around the world due to their standards of education and facilities. The University of Reading is also known as the best research center in the whole country. The universities in the town of Reading attract millions of students from around the world who especially travel to UK for gaining higher education. The car hire from Reading to Stansted airport and all other airports of UK is available at highly economical and budget friendly prices. Due to great number of tourists and people from around the world in the town of Reading, there are a large number of ground transportation firms offering superior class facilities. The town of Reading is a great place for studies as well as fun activities. There are great places in and near the town which offer fabulous recreational facilities for the ease and convenience of tourists.

Some of the most renowned and popular recreational spots of Reading include The Beale Park, Reading Museum and Town Hall, Museum of Berkshire Aviation, REME Museum Of Technology, Museum of English Rural Life, Wellington Country Park, Central Swimming Pool, Rivermead Leisure Centre, Adventure Dolphin, Amners Farm and Minature Railway, The Ure Museum of Greek Archaeology, Reading Climbing Centre, Dinton Pastures Country Park and many more. Transportation facilities in the town of Reading include private cars, taxis, airport cabs, vans, buses, coaches and trains. The trains from the Reading Railway Station travel to all major locations across the country including the great city of London. For those looking for taxis, there are lots of companies offering taxi hire from Stansted airport to Reading at cost effective fares. Among the leading transportation firms of UK, comes CrossCab. It is one of the top ranked online cab booking firm of UK providing superior class taxi services in the town of Reading since many years. They provide all kinds of car hire from Stansted airport to Reading at cheap prices without compromising on service quality.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/the-worth-seeing-places-in-reading.htm> - Article Side

Steven Ralph - About Author:

The a car hire from Reading to Stansted airport and all other airports of UK is available at highly economical and budget friendly prices. CrossCab provide all kinds of a car hire from Stansted airport to Reading.

Article Keywords:

taxi hire from Reading to Stansted airport, car hire from Reading to Stansted airport, taxi hire from Stansted airport to Reading, car hire from Stansted airport to Reading

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!