A Splendid Tour to Rajasthan by Jackson

Article published on January 18th 2012 | Travel Tips

Rajasthan is known for its amazing cultures, traditions and even its very long and proud history, hence tour to Rajasthan is something one must not miss. It is also the largest state in India and is also considered to be the most preferred holiday and travel destinations by foreigners all around the globe. It is very popular for the diverse and unique culture it boasts and also for its amazing geographical features. Rajasthan is known for its colorful culture and that attracts tourists from all over the world. In case you are planning on going out with many tours that are available you will find many tourist spots in the whole state.

Jaipur is the capital of Rajasthan and it is also known as the Pink city. It is truly a very beautiful place to visit as it allows you to actually witness the city thought the colorful Rajasthan tour that you have taken. Jaipur is also known as the Paris of India because it is truly an absolutely a romantic city. So many honeymooners take a tour to this state and specially Jaipur for their honeymoons. The palatial hotels included in most of the tours, are the perfect setting for an eternal love story. The tour also makes the perfect luxury trip because of the fact that you are surrounded by palaces and amazing monuments. Jaipur is also very well known for the enamel work they do on gold and for the amazing woolen carpets they make. These items are very expensive and are famous the world around, and make a perfect and memorable souvenir you may take from your tour.

These tours are very popular with people who want to visit spectacular sand dunes in middle of the dessert, which are found in places like Jaisalmer. These sand suns of Jaisalmer are a very popular tourist attraction that is enjoyed by many who all come to this place to see the life in the deserts. Camel rides and safaris are the modes of enjoyment and transportation while traveling on these majestic sand dunes. If you are a pure music lover, Ajmer is the place for you. It is world renowned for the Sufi culture that exists there. The city is also famous for Ajmer Sharif and Pushkar. Moreover the tours to this place are incomplete if you donâ€™t visit this place. The other very popular places to visit while on these tours are the Hawa Mahal, Amber fort and City Palace. All these monuments were made by the mighty Rajputs and have stayed intact with all its glory for centuries. These Rajputs have made the colorful culture of Beautiful Rajasthan what it is today, and are the must watch monuments.

Dance and music is a very integral part of the Rajasthani culture, and these tours give you an awesome opportunity to enjoy it live. The same music and dance that this culture sports has become super famous all over the world and there are fair and festivals held solely for these art form in this beautiful state. There are thousands of local artists that perform live at the Pushkar fair; hence you should definitely include that when you plan your vacation to Rajasthan.

There is so much more then all that you can witness in Rajasthan that you just have to be there and experience it firsthand. Thus in case you want to visit Rajasthan for your next holiday book a Rajasthan tours as soon as you can and have a vacation like a king.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/a-splendid-tour-to-rajasthan.htm - Article Side

Jackson - About Author:

Author is an analyst for writing informative articles on Travel and Tourism Industry India. Visit India and avail the best offers on a Rajasthan Tour Packages, a Pushkar Fair 2012 and a Tour of Rajasthan with valuable information about Incredible India with TheIncredibleIndia.org

Article Keywords:
Tour to Rajasthan, Rajasthan Tours, Rajasthan Tour Packages, vacation to Rajasthan

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!