Goa is a state in India, located in the western region of the country called Konkan. The Arabian Sea makes for the west coast border of the state. The state capital is Panaji, while the other big cities are Vasco Da Gama and Margao, which has a cultural influence from Portuguese who had conquered the state in the 16th century. Goa Packages are renowned the world over, for exotic beaches and rich heritage architecture and Churches. Goa also has a rich flora and fauna with stretches of forest and wildlife sanctuaries.

The climate of Goa is hot and humid almost throughout the year and hence the best months to travel to Goa is between the months of December and February when u can enjoy the Goa beaches to the fullest. Goa is very well connected by road with all its neighbouring states and also has a heavy traffic Dabolim airport. Packages for Goa trips generally include an airport pick up and drop, a welcome drink, stay at hotel room with option of sea facing rooms, a complimentary buffet, use of steam and sauna breakfast and sightseeing.

Goa beaches are the most sought after places to have fun with family. The most famous beaches are Anjuna, Colva, Calangute, Baga, Dona Paula and Candolim. These beaches offer glistening sands, swaying coconut trees, and fresh sea food. Goa Beaches are known to be clean, safe and life guards are always available in case of emergency. Water sports are also an exciting option for adventurous tourists. Popular water sports are windsurfing, sailing, jet skiing, boogie boarding, snorkelling, scuba diving, and deep sea fishing. Packages for Goa are a very famous destination for honeymooners. Sea food lovers can have the feast of their life. Live music at restaurants in the night adds to the glory of the town.

Goa is also known as the shopperâ€™s heaven, mainly because of low cost and variety of products available. Goa is famous for wooden furniture, bamboo and handicraft products. Antiques and souvenirs can be the best buy at bargain rates.

The Churches of Goa give a sneak peek into the culture of the Portuguese. Most of the historical churches were built during the Portuguese invasion and are famous for exemplary and outstanding Christian architecture. The Basilica of Bom Jesus is famous in the Roman Catholic world .The other famous churches are Se Cathedral, Convent & Church of St. Francis of Assisi and The Church of St. Alex-Curtorim. A well planned package for Goa can make sure you enjoy the serenity of the state.

Your Goa packages will involve exploring sensuous beaches and historical forts and architecture that have kept alive the Portuguese legacy. So if you are looking for a holiday which is full of fun and relaxation, Goa can be the best choice .The best part is that you never get bored of Goa and will want to revisit time and over again.
