India is a land of vivid diversities. This article has been penned to throw light on the fascinating cities of Mumbai, Jaipur and Chennai.

Mumbai, the financial city of India, is a bustling and vibrant city known for its sea-side shores, torrential rain and Bhelpuri (a delicious food item). Bollywood (Mumbai's film industry) and the Bombay Stock Exchange too play a pivotal role in lending the city its distinctive personality. Mumbai is a city of dreams for many. Situated in the western part of India, the city is reachable by road, rail or air. Mumbai boasts of a very pleasant climate which makes it a round-the-year destination. You can plan your Mumbai trip anytime during the year. Mumbai hotels are also first-class and come wrapped with all sorts of amenities and luxuries.

Mumbai is a perfect amalgamation of exciting sightseeing, beautiful skyline, a vibrant culture and lip-smacking cuisines. Marine Drive is one of the must-see destinations in Mumbai. Situated by the sea, it is a breezy spot and a popular hangout for friends and lovers. Other top draws of Mumbai are Colaba Causeway, Elephanta Caves, Gateway of India, Mahakali Caves, Mahalaxmi Temple and Jehangir Art Gallery. Essel World, the popular amusement park, is another top draw especially if you are looking for some fun-filled time. If you are a wildlife freak, you can also head to the Sanjay Gandhi National Park and spot some leopards though if you are lucky, you may also spot one roaming in the city (pun intended)!

Mumbai hotels are all first-class, hospitable and hygienic. A Mumbai tour package contains advance booking in top Mumbai hotels, great sightseeing and fabulous food. So, what are you waiting for? Head to this charming destination today!

Jaipur holiday: Jaipur is one of the top draws of northern India. If you are looking for a historical place, then Jaipur is the place to visit! Jaipur, the capital city of the state of Rajasthan, northern India, is a place known for palaces, monuments and a rich traditional culture. Jaipur hotels are also top-class and serve excellent food. Alternatively, you can also eat out at the restaurants and eateries.

History comes alive in Jaipur as you stand before the majestic monuments and palaces. The Hawa Mahal or Palace of the Breeze is a colossal palace that is infested with monkeys. The City of Palace is another artistic wonder which will transport you into the medieval era. Jantar Mantar, the astronomical observatory, is also a hit with the tourists. Other must-see places are Amber Fort, Nahargarh Fort, Maota Lake and Albert Museum. Jaipur's traditional Marwari culture is another thing to soak in.

For accommodation, you can book Jaipur hotels or stay in guest houses. But it would be prudent to buy a Jaipur tour package and book Jaipur hotels in advance. So, head to Jaipur and make your journey a memorable one.

Trip to Chennai: Another hot Indian destination is Chennai, the capital of Tamil Nadu. Chennai has beautiful beaches, captivating temples and a rich culture. Some of the must-visit locales of Chennai are MGR Film City, Marina Beach, Ice House, Elliot's Beach, Marundeeswarar Temple, Breezy Beach, Ashtalakshmi Temple and Dash N Splash.

You can stay at Chennai hotels, resorts or guest houses. Chennai hotels can also be booked in advance by buying a Chennai tour package. So, pack your bags and tiptoe into the land of beautiful beaches.
