Goa Travel should always comprise of beautiful beaches, better accommodation in the luxurious hotels and getting closer to the history of this fascinating place.

North Goa

The northern portion of Goa allows you to experience the most packaged holidays and heavenly resorts that can be easily chosen for throwing friendly parties. You can choose your favorite destinations in Baga, Calangute and Candolim apart from enjoying the flea market of Anjuna to witness the authentic and real Goa. At the same time, Goa Travel plan should not forget the stay in Siolim houses that will offer you a chance to live in the oldest and restored houses with impeccable beauty, terracotta tiles and local antiques to give you maximum satisfaction. Tourists can further enjoy here the luxury of having bathed in pools; Ayurvedic massages and meal in serene environment. Moving the corner tip of North Goa, you will also like to visit the Fort Tiracol in Arambol to feel something really different from previous experience. It is the magic and excellent blend of history, culture and natural sceneries that you will feel in your Goa Travel plan.

Central Goa

This portion of Goa will give you a better picture of Panji, the capital city of Goa to see the ancient splendor of Casa Britona. Situated on the Mandovi river banks, it is now transformed into boutique property and houses here will be well supplied with Indian feast, the local furniture and waters of Mandovi. The visitors planning for the Goa Travel never miss out a tour to the old Goa places that once revealed the city of Rome with its architecture, history and treasures.

South Goa

Well, if you are not interested to visit the hectic and busy beaches of the North Goa, South Goa presents you with a beautiful scene of slow beaches that will captivate your attention at the earliest stage. You must include some sort of accommodation in Goa Travel plan here to have excellent views of the white sands beaches, paddy fields, azure waters and a steady life of the locals here. You can easily find the best hotel here which will be decorated with historical pleasure and the best recipe that you have ever had in your life. If interested, you may also ask for some cooking lessons from the chef to try at your own home after the Goa Travel itinerary ends.

At the last, the visitors have never forgotten to take some time off for stay in Goa susegad or sosegado which typically refers to ‘Laid-backness’. Residing in the village of Loutolim will give you a unique touch of Portuguese culture and architecture where you will love the presence of beautiful animals, organic garden and natural canines. Goa Travel offers you everything even if you do not like beaches!
