Suzhou Things to Do by Lek Boonlert

Article published on November 28th 2011 | Travel Tips

Suzhou is an area filled with attractions and many things to do. There is something to suit every taste, whether you enjoy temples and sightseeing or shopping until your feet hurt, you could not pick a better place to holiday.

A trip to Shantang Street should not be missed by anyone who enjoys looking at buildings with fascinating old architecture. The street itself has a history that can be traced back over 1100 years. At night it is all lit up and looks fabulous and very welcoming.

Suzhou is an area famous for its gardens. A trip to see some of the fabulous sights is a must for any visitor, particularly if it is their first time in the area.

Grab a bite to eat in Eunuch Lane. The street is filled with fabulous restaurants and in the evening families all dine together, enjoying barbeques and various other dishes.

Take time out to enjoy the traditional art. Ping Tan is sung while being accompanied by the lute. These musical performances can take place in theatres or in the gardens around the city. For travellers who really want to get the most out of their trip, spare some time to take in and enjoy a performance.

There are many cheap Suzhou hotels available, which means a trip to the area can suit any budget. Cheap Suzhou hotels may not have all the facilities that a standard hotel might have, but if you are using it as a base to explore the area then many facilities are not a necessity.
