Are You Going to Alhambra Palace?

by Albion Swords

Article published on April 6th 2012 | Vacations

Are you heading towards Spain as a tourist? If so, then I recommend that you should be one of the two million people to visit Alhambra Palace this year. Situated at a hilltop in Granada, it is one of the top choices of tourists. This palace is remarkable for its immense historical importance which made it famous, though its beauty cannot be neglected.

A Quick Check -List

The first thing about the Alhambra is its location which is a gift of nature to the Spanish. The location is simply excellent, surrounded by the Sierra Nevada mountain range of Spain and so it can be seen from a great distance due to the elevation.

Symbolized by its characteristic red walls, itâ€™s one of the best examples of Arabian architecture in Spain. It is named Alhambra which means â€œred fortressâ€• in Arabic.

It was established by the Nasrid Dynasty and was used as a living palace of the Amirs . It was also used as their court. The symbols of aristocracy are obvious in all aspects of the palace. It is decorated by carved cedar wood, and the best of mosaics of that era. The beauty of the Alhambra Palace inspired the poets of different eras to write on it. Washington Irvingâ€™s â€œTales of the Alhambra perhaps the most famous of them.

It was at the peak of its glory between the 14th and 18th centuries. The Muslims established it and the Moors developed it. As a result of this cultural mixture, it is a blend of Muslim architecture, the remnants of the palace of Carlos V, the Church of Saint Maria and so on.

Due to certain reasons it was destroyed in the 18th century but luckily it was rediscovered and was later renovated by the government. Comprising of Alhambra castle, Royal palace, Gardens of Genealife and the citadel, it stands tall as one of the best tourist places of Spain. It booked its place as one of the world heritage sites in 1984.

Get Ready For The Thrill

Well, itâ€™s only two hours' distance from Nerja, but I think the scenery along the road makes you feel the time is shorter. While making plans you should think about time. It is not worth taking only a few hours for this trip, because you should not miss anything. It will be better for you to get advance tickets; otherwise you could be inconvenienced due to limited entry. So, to avoid disappointment, make plans and leave as early as possible. It will be wise if you can take a guide with you for the tour as this will make your journey even better. If luck is with you, you may take part in a concert which is frequently held there. While you're there you can take a look at the elegant Parador Nacional. Itâ€™s one of the finest hotels in Alhambra, Spain. It is good to sit in this beautiful 15th century building and spend some time there. This hotel will serve the purpose well.

Last Words

Finally I just want to say, if you are looking for some place with historical, natural, artistic excellence, then the Alhambra Palace will not disappoint you. Have a good journey!

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/are-you-going-to-alhambra-palace.htm - Article Side

Albion Swords - About Author:
Club Villamar offers many holiday villas dispersed all over a location maison espagne and whether on the a locations espagne. Holiday in Spain offers not only freedom but also a wide choice a vacation holiday in a locations villa espagne. Learn More About Clubvillamar Holidays on a Albion Swords Blog.

Article Keywords:
location espagne, locations espagne, location en espagne, villa espagne

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!