Maldives â€“ extending a seductive invitation to tourists By Binil Ummer

Article published on January 2nd 2012 | Vacations

With its deep blue seas, turquoise reefs, white sandy beaches and palm trees Maldives extends its seductive invitation to tourists. And it is an invitation most are willing to accept. Maldives now, with its immaculate beauty is a prime tourist destination. Whether it is a holiday or honeymoon, you can spend it chirpily in Maldives.

Tourism in Maldives are one of the better options available for honeymooners globally. It provides you with anticipated intimate seclusion and also a beautiful setting as backdrop for celebrating the honeymoon. You are offered multiple options. A dinner under stars which is magical, with an occasional flicker of candlelight which would remind you of reality, is an out of the world experience. You may satisfy you adventurist impulse with a daring getaway to an uninhabited island, spending all by yourself the entire time. Or you can languish in your private bungalow undergoing a spa treatment in your own room, watching the endless turquoise waters. To swim around a house reef with a mask and fin is a weird but interesting way to get to know each other. To dive down the beautiful vibrant reefs is another option equally interesting. You can go for a night fishing trip engaging in a light competition of who catches more, savoring sunset from the boat. In multiple ways, Mauritius honeymoon is sure to be a memorable one.

Maldives Travel Agents take you to country with people who are warm and hospitable and welcome you with a heartening smile which is as white as the sands of Maldives. Islands in Maldives give opportunity to visit some inhabited islands and get to know the way ordinary Maldivian live. It is the appropriate way to experience that. Some of the islands harbor a modern look with brightly painted house walls and harbor areas. But there are also quite fishing villages with lots of tree shade, swings and the traditional wooden holhuashi. Holhuashi is set up where islanders after the dayâ€™s work assemble to relax exchanging news, telling stories and playing cards.

Another important attraction of Beaches in Maldives is night reef fishing trip which is offered by many resorts. The boat leaves before sunset and settle at a good spot near a reef. The boat crew will tutor you on how to use the lines, hooks and sinkers. The old timers say that you can catch enough in the time of an hour.

After a good catch you head for a deserted island to cook and eat. With only few hundred utilized off about one thousand one hundred and ninety islands, it is easy to find an uninhabited island. While the fish is getting prepared you can experience the eeriness of the island enhanced by the softness of sand which is not touched by human foot for a long time and undisturbed sounds of nature. A day tip to these islands is also an out of the world experience.

The warm seas of Maldives hold high visibility throughout the year. You can see a fish passing fifty meters away. Combined with the fascinating formation of over three thousand reefs and free flowing tides of monsoon, this fact creates one of the richest diving coral reef areas of the world. You do not have to be a professional diver to dive in Maldives. There is provision for advanced training.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/maldives-extending-a-seductive-invitation-to-tourists.htm - Article Side

Binil Ummer - About Author:

Binil is an eminent writer and travel enthusiast, here giving valuable information on Maldives Travel Agents, a Islands in Maldives, Beaches in Maldives and a Tourism in Maldives. For more information visit our site a http://maldivestourism.org.in/.

Article Keywords:
Tourism in Maldives, Maldives Travel Agents, Islands in Maldives, Beaches in Maldives

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!