Long term rentals hotels in Edmonton are the ideal choice for those on an extended stay in Edmonton. Besides the variety in accommodation, visitors can find a hotel in Edmonton that offers everything from a couple of daysâ€™ to a few monthsâ€™ stay. Long term rentals are usually sought by people who are:

- â€¢ Visiting Edmonton on business
- â€¢ Consultants visiting Edmonton on a temporary project
- â€¢ Relocating to Edmonton
- â€¢ Renovating their home
- â€¢ Between rentals and need temporary housing
- â€¢ Family visiting on extended stay
- â€¢ Vacationing in Canada with Edmonton as their base
- â€¢ Companies with multiple locations that need lodging facilities

Also called extended stay hotels, the visitor has the advantage of enjoying all the facilities of the hotel in a home-like atmosphere that is comfortable, luxurious and comes with top class service. Long term rentals include amenities like a fully equipped kitchenette with a refrigerator, microwave oven, coffee maker, utensils and cutlery, laundry services, clean linen, satellite television, high speed internet access, a dedicated phone line with direct dialling facility, a private bathroom, concierge and access to the gym or pool. Some hotels also offer free local calls.

There are high quality hotels in Edmonton that offer long term rentals to travellers through different packages depending on the type of accommodation chosen and the duration of their stay, but the biggest benefits of this arrangement are:

- â€¢ Cost savings
- â€¢ Low rates and discounts
- â€¢ Comfort
- â€¢ Self-catering kitchen
- â€¢ All the amenities without the responsibility of maintenance
- â€¢ Maintenance and housekeeping services taken care of
- â€¢ Excellent locations with access to important areas
- â€¢ Pet friendly accommodation

â€¢ Parking facilities

Visitors can opt for monthly or weekly rentals when they choose hotels in Edmonton offering long term rentals. The arrangement helps the visitor save money. Before hiring long term rental hotels in Edmonton ensure that you get the following information:

â€¢ Ask the hotel exactly what you are getting. Does the rental include breakfast? Is the accommodation clean and well-maintained? What amenities are included? Is housekeeping part of the rental?

â€¢ Look for references and reviews.

â€¢ If you have a pet, find out in advance if the hotel is pet-friendly.

â€¢ Get details about the hotelâ€™s cancellation and payment terms as this can vary from hotel to hotel.

The long term rental accommodation is usually similar to a fully furnished service apartment, with privacy and easy access to all the areaâ€™s attractions. Once the arrangements are made and you have booked your long term rental at the hotel in Edmonton, all you have to do is pack your personal belongings and move in for a comfortable stay taken care of by the hotelsâ€™ attentive staff that caters to your needs. For those who prefer not to cook, hotels in Edmonton usually offer an in-house restaurant and access to other restaurants in the area around the hotel. It is always advisable to book ahead as this means access to the best choice.
