Tour in Kerala - Some Unexplored Destinations by Nidhi Varshney

Article published on June 25th 2012 | Vacations

Kerala is one of the favorite tourist states in India. The state is globally famed for its abundant beauty of nature, sandy beaches and long back water network. There are many world-famous holiday spots located around the state attract lots of visitors from far away places. Quite a few less explored tourist places also sited in state that are equally attractive and worth visit. In this article we will discuss about some such kind of places in Kerala.

Thrissur

Known as the â€œCultural Capital of Keralaâ€•, Thrissur is wonderful place to visit in Kerala. The city is renowned or its cultural values. It has been center of spiritual learning for long time. Thrissur Pooram festival, one of the important temple festivals in Kerala is celebrated in the city every year in the month of April or May. There are many important temples also located around the place including Thiruvambadi Sri Krishna Temple, Vadakkumnathan Temple and Paramekkavu Temple. The Our Lady of Lourdes Metropolitan Cathedral and the Basilica of Our Lady of Dolours churches are also important religious sites in the city.

Athirappilly Waterfalls

Athirappilly is a beautiful waterfall in Kerala located about 80 km distance from the popular city Cochin at the Chalakudy River. It is one of the most beautiful sites to visit in the state located amid dense green forest. The steamy waterfall has the height of about 80 feet. May and October are the best months to enjoy the beauty of this wonderful site.

Vagamon

It is a beautiful hill town and pilgrimages center in Kerala located at the border of Kottayam-Idukki district in the state. The place is blessed by abundant natural beauty and enjoys pleasing climate throughout the year. Vagamon is also famed as the â€œScotland of Asiaâ€•. National Geographic Traveler a popular travel magazine of United Kingdom also lists Vagamon in 50 most attractive places to visit in India.

Kasargod

Kasargod is a backwater spot located in northern region of Kerala. The town is also known for rice cultivation and coir processing. Many important Hindu temples and historical places also located in its vicinity are also worth visit attraction. The Madhur Temple, Mallikkarjuna Temple, Theruvatthu Mosque, Chandragiri Fort, Malik Deenar Mosque and The Bekal Fort are the popular sites to visit around this town.

Wayanad

It is the most tranquil and least populated district in Kerala located at the Western Ghats. Wayanad is known for its untouched beauty of nature. If you want to explore the nature in its best form, Wayanad is the perfect place for you to visit on Tour in Kerala. Thirunelli Temple, Edakkal Caves, Pookode Lake Meenmutty Falls and the popular Ananthanatha Swami Temple are the interesting places to visit in Wayanad.

These are the some less popular but worth visit places to visit in Kerala. So, if you are planning your trip of the state, this time you can explore some different with these places. The wonderful natural beauty and tranquil ambiance will offer you ideal setting to spend memorable time with your family and friends.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/tour-in-kerala-some-unexplored-destinations.htm - Article Side

Nidhi Varshney - About Author:
Nidhi Varshney is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tourism related topics. She has authored many books on tour guide for a Kerala Tourism and a Kerala Travel package.

Article Keywords:
Tour in Kerala, Kerala Travel package, Kerala Tourism

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!