Itâ€™s a treat to source canvas stretcher bars from the masters of the game! These guys will give you the best value for your money every time. They will give you the best wood of the quality that will not let you down when you order some heavy duty stretcher bars for your heavy frames. The stretcher bars from these warehouses will never warp, bend, split or generally show signs of stress. You will also get these bars for a lot less than you will probably pay other warehouses. These guys will give you the best of deals, the best full box discounts and you wonâ€™t be able to complain about their coast to coast shipping rates either. There is no compromise on specifications, quality or prices and thatâ€™s saying a lot especially when your orders are bulky. There is no reason for you to be apprehensive about online ordering either. These specialists among warehouses have secure, encrypted online ordering system and that means you can order confidently.

If you are looking for heavy duty stretcher bars these premier warehouses have a great selection in these. There is the Goldilocks variety that is also called Medium/Heavy Duty and these are a compromise at 1 3/16â€• depth and the same in width. Though these are not as stout as the heavier duty bars these are still very sturdy and a great bargain as well. There is the Heavy Duty in the Midi range at 1 Â½â€• depth and the same in width. These are strong and heavy duty but you pay much less for them. Then there are the Super Heavy Duty Stretcher Bars that are 2â€• in width and 1 1/2â€• in depth. You will need these for your larger canvases.

The specialist warehouses have a great policy for returns of your canvas stretcher bars. The company will offer to replace bars that arenâ€™t usable so that your order is complete. There is a warranty for all bars up to 15 days after shipping. If your order is in whole boxes there could be a bad egg in the box and that will be either replaced or you will be given credit for it. This piece will be replaced on your next order rather than giving you an immediate replacement. If you have to return products you will be given credit or a refund provided the merchandise is returned within 30 days of the date of purchase provided of course it is in the new condition you got it in. Canvas stretcher bars should of course be opened with care since the points tend to crack and splinter if they are opened outward.
