Article Side
How to Decor a Wedding Reception Hall by Deepak Verma

Article published on January 23rd 2012 | Weddings

It is a wonderful day in a coupleâ€™s life. Two lovers are now connected with a lovely bond and are together with each other, forever. No doubt, no word can articulate the feelings of the too. Now it is the time to celebrate to share their merriness with their friends, relatives and everybody connected to them.

What to do to make the wedding reception a memorable one? How to dÃ©cor the wedding reception hall? These are the questions which strike before one starts with the preparation. Well, a plain and simple answer to it is to consult a wedding planner. Indian wedding planners are now present at every location. Book the planners online or over the call. These people will turn simple marriage reception into a grand remarkable event. Wedding planners in India are well skilled on holding all sorts of tasks carried out at marriage type functions. The event organizers are expertise in decorating the site with immense exquisiteness.

Or else, if someone is thinking to arrange the episode or dÃ©cor the place at their own then it is another good idea. However, one must take care of few chief points while adorning the reception hall. Keeping in mind the season of the wedding, the person must choose light flowers for summer wedding and murky color flowers for winter weddings. In case of spring nuptial one can get different colors and combination of flowers to embellish the hall.

Embellish the main entrance of the vestibule with flowers and bouquets. Set colorful lights in specific shape or simply in the shape of the entrance gate. Arrange artificial scenery, such as fountain or pool with floating candles in it, in front of the stage of at the centre of the corridor. Spread the magic of flowers all around the hall and reception stage along with colorful illumination. Keep eye-catching sculptures at places and corners.

Organize group dinner table and make sure that the tables are well decorated and a small bouquet or flower is there on every table. Visibility of the reception stage from the dinner table should be taken as the important part.

Arrange a small playhouse for the kids at one corner of the hall so that kids can enjoy themselves and that the parents can meet the couple and others without interruption.

If possible, set LCD at the walls of the hall so as to avoid the crowd on the stage and make people watch the couples comfortably from their dinner tables.

Place the feast on one side just behind the dinner table. Manage for two set of feasts to avoid the chaos at the dinner place. Crowds at the ceremonial dinner might wreck the merriment of the reception.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/weddings-articles/how-to-decor-a-wedding-reception-hall.htm - Article Side

Deepak Verma - About Author:
Deepak is the author of this article, who is working for FNP a wedding website which offers wedding planner and a event planners for a wedding reception and event planning.

Article Keywords:
event planning, event planners, wedding decorators, wedding websites, wedding reception, wedding, wedding decorations ideas, weddings

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!